CANNED GOODS STORY GERMAN PROPAGANDA

There is absolutely no truth in the story that is being given circulation, by persons unfriendly to their country's cause, that signers of the Food Conservation Pledge Cards this week are in danger of having part of their canned goods confiscated by the Government. This rumor has been repeatedly denied by the Food Administration, but apparently it persists. It is pro-German propaganda and persons circulating it are giving aid and comfort to the cause of America's enemies. (Signed) F. M. SACKETT, Federal Food Adm., Ky.

EXCEEDED APPORTIONMENT

Mason County Oversubscribed to Second Loan $114,950—Total Subscription Amounted to $538,900—Mason County Bankers Show Patriotism By Taking Big Block of Bonds.

FREEDOM'S RETORT

Washington, October 27.—Secretary McAdoo announced later tonight that the second Liberty Loan was an overwhelming success. "It is a great honor," said the Secretary, "to be able to announce that the second Liberty Loan has been greatly oversubscribed. It will be several days before final figures can be given. "The challenge of the German Kaiser has been answered by the free people of America in unmistakable terms."

An oversubscription of $148,950 to the second Liberty loan by the people of Maysville and Mason county is the message to the Kaiser that they stand solidly behind the President in carrying the war to a successful finish.

Maysville and Mason county had a combined total allotment of $389,350. When the campaign closed here Saturday $538,900 had been subscribed, showing that the patriotism that has characterized the people of Mason county at all times, is still alive, and that the present generation is more than willing to do its part in forever stamping out Prussianism and autocracy.

Bankers representing the six banks of the county met in this city late Saturday afternoon to find out what had been accomplished in the campaign which was about to come to a close. It was found that $343,900 worth of bonds had been subscribed for, which was $45,450 less than the county's apportionment. The bankers immediately got busy among themselves and in a short time subscribed for $194,400 worth of bonds, making Mason county's total subscription of $148,950.

The banks reported their total sales as follows: First-Standard Bank $250,000 Bank of Maysville 125,000 State National Bank 85,350 Farmers and Traders Bank 48,450 Bank of Mayslick 23,400 Bank of Dover 6,100

Total $538,900 The bonds have been distributed among hundreds of people in the city and county, all loyal Americans, and it is certain that in every instance the buyers were prompted by a spirit of patriotism and had no thought of the excellent business investment they were making. By their oversubscription of almost one hundred and fifty thousand dollars the people of Maysville and Mason county have sent the messages across the Atlantic to the Kaiser that they are doing everything in their power to forever stamp out his autocratic rule and to supplant him by a democratic form of government.

The excellent work done in Mason county represents the hard work done by President James N. Kehos of the First-Standard Bank and Vice President N. S. Calhoun of the Bank of Maysville, assisted by all the other bankers of the county.

NATION OBSERVES A DAY OF PRAYER

Washington, October 28.—In church and homes throughout the county today Americans led by their president bowed in solemn prayer for success of their nation's arms. It was the first day of prayer so designated by a Presidential proclamation since the United States entered the war. On warships and at naval shore stations the day was also observed with memorial services for the twenty-eight sailors lost in the sinking of the American transport Antilles.

At Central Presbyterian Church here, the President and Mrs. Wilson heard Rev. Dr. James H. Taylor utter this supplication:

"Remembering always the teachings of Christ, we must believe that our cause at this time is just. We pray, therefore, O God that the liberty and democracy with which our nation is blessed shall be shared with peoples less fortunate, even at the cost of the blood of our sons. May it come speedily when nations, great or small powerful or weak, may be free to work out their ideals without threat or menace. May we be part of thy agency on earth to bring these blessings to the world."

Private William Duley, who was transferred from the Headquarters detachment, First Kentucky Brigade, National Guard, to the regular army, has been given a commission in the Engineering Corps.

AMOUNT RAISED IN LOAN DRIVE IN DOUBT

Several Days Will Elnapse Before Full Extent of Nation's Subscriptions Is Known—New York District Is Far Over Quota.

Washington, October 28.—The total amount subscribed to the second Liberty Loan, the treasury department announced tonight, is still a "matter of suppeculation." Several days probably will elapse before the full extent of the nation's subscriptions is ascertained.

The department was without figures tonight showing any change in the estimated totals, other than in the New York district. New York's maximum of $1,500,000,000 reported last night to have been exceeded, it was said tonight, might be increased by later returns to as much as $1,750,000. Previous estimates had placed the total at approximately $1,650,000,000 or $100,000,000 less than tonight's estimate.

Reserve bank officials and local committees working until after midnight last night all over the country, tested today. It was virtually the first breathing spell they had taken since the campaign began. Few districts even reported to the treasury and the assumption was that they would take their time in transmitting the final figures. They have till next Thursday to make the complete report.

Little Indication of Result

Returns received at the treasury today, gave little indication as to the final result, the department announced tonight. "On the face of returns it can not be said whether the sale exceeded $5,000,000,000. Conviction is general, however, that it probably approximated the maximum total. Banks of course, have made no effort to tabulate all their returns any may not do so till the final day for reporting, November 1. Obviously, great changes may be made in the total between now and Thursday.

"It seems certain that every district has gone well past its minimum and that several will exceed their maximums sufficiently to carry the weaker districts to the high mark in the general total.

"New York, Chicago, Cleveland and San Francisco were showing especially strong in the late returns. How far New York will go over its maximum is a matter of conjecture.

May Be Quarter Billion

"Some think that the excess may reach $250,000,000. Chicago district chairman have begun to feel that their total may reach the maximum of $700,000,000. Every message today from Chicago showed new increase.

"Heads of other districts rose in frequently from their avalanche of returns long enough to ask that final judgment not be passed upon them for a few days until all sales have been thoroughly canvassed. The Chicago and Kansas City districts sent the nearest complete totals yet received.

FEUDIST'S SON ENLISTED

Elby Hatfield, son of "Cap" Hatfield, Omar W. Va., was enrolled in the regular army Saturday at Cincinnati and told the recruiting officers he would do his best to maintain the family history. His father figured in the McCoy-Hatfield feud several years ago. The son, 19 years old, will receive his initial military training at Ft. Thomas.

JULE PLUMMER KILLED

Noted Official of Campbell County Hanged Jackson and Walling.

Newport, Ky., October 27.—The man who hanged Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling for the murder of Pearl Bryan in 1897, died last night. He was Jule Plummer, 55 years old, Newport, deputy sheriff.

Mr. Plummer succumbed at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Covington, to injuries sustained yesterday morning. When he was conveying Lone Star, an Indian prisoner, to the railroad station for transportation to the penitentiary at Frankfort, a Fort Mitchell street car hit the patrol when at Fourth street and Madison avenue, Covington. The Indian also was injured.

Plummer worked night and day for many weeks to gain a clew in the Bryan case, and by taking the number of the young woman's shoes and the stock lead he found that they were made at Portsmouth, O., for a firm at Greensburg, Ind. After that the case was easily worked up.

LYNCH-DWYRE

Private James Dwyre, of this city, who is now stationed at Camp Taylor, and Miss Rose Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lynch, of West Second street, surprised their many friends here by being married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, the Rev. Father P. M. Jones. Mr. Dwyre secured a forty-eight-hour furlough in order to have the ceremony performed. The Ledger joins with their many friends in offering congratulations.

FLEMING COUNTY MAN COMMITTED SUICIDE

Ennis Hartley, aged 25, prominent Fleming county farmer of the Park Lake neighborhood, took his own life yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock by putting his head in front of the barrel of a shotgun and pulling the trigger. The top of his head was torn entirely off. The cause of his rash is unknown.

Wednesday, November 1, is All Saints Day, on which occasion there will be special services at the St. Patrick Catholic Church.

SERVICE IN FRANCE

For Men at Camp Taylor Is Predicted at Early Date.

Louisville, Ky., October 27.—Nineteen thousand of the first and second draft contingents in quarters at Camp Taylor will be in France within three months, and probably by January 1, it was indicated today, when orders were given every company commander to speed up the training of men.

While officers at division headquarters would not discuss the order or confirm the report that Washington has given instructions for quick action, unit commanders who have their orders have given mute verification by making more progress during the past week than they made in the whole previous four weeks.

There has been hurried distribution of rifles, and the remarkable record of giving 30,000 men advanced rifle drill a week after they touched the guns for the first time has been made. General Halo now is conducting an inspection tour of national army camps, and on his return no doubt will bring an announcement of interest with regard to the departure of first troops for France.

SAVE FOOD IN HOME
Did you buy a Liberty Bond?
Then save food in your home. Money is good only for what it will buy. Food is the first purchase made by the Government with your dollars.
There can be food enough for our soldiers and our allies—only if America provides it. Remember that.
Remember, too, that more food produced means waste unless all of it is saved. And we won't win the war if we waste.
Food by the millions of tons must be shipped abroad. For armies, to win, must be as well fed as well led. When you fill the garbage pail you feed famine. Victory abroad is being weighed on grocers' scales at home. Sign a Food Conservation pledge card TODAY!

COAL ON WAY DOWN OHIO RIVER

The Ohio river was rising rapidly at Pittsburg Saturday and there was sufficient water at that point to ship loaded coal barges to Southern points. Several towboats also left Point Pleasant late Saturday night with tows of coal for the South. It is thought that Maysville will get one barge of coal the latter part of the week, thus relieving the shortage here.

CHINA'S PART IN THE WAR

The belligerent of China has been treated by Germany as if it were negligible. But if the German government is sincere in that estimate, it is making a curious mistake. China is not only potentially one of the most important of the allied powers, but is actually playing a large and ever-increasing part in the war.

Gardner L. Harding, a student of oriental affairs, writes in "Present Day China":

"Before she asked from the Allies a single guarantee, before she even broke off relations with Germany, China had an expeditionary force in France. A hundred thousand Chinese workmen, a contingent that matched in size Sir John French's 'contemptible little British army', by February 1 was busy plugging up vital holes in France's industrial army and freeing many thousand French soldiers for service at the front.

"Immediate plans call for the expansion of this Chinese labor army to 200,000 and it is rapidly reaching that figure."

It is obvious that sending laborers to France is nearly as valuable a service as sending soldiers, because the workmen release trained fighters. Hundreds of thousands of French and British are held back of the battle zone for the work of constructing roads, railroads, bridges, etc., and handling supplies. Back of them, still, are the millions in the munition factories who if replaced would be available for the front. And on the battle line itself the number of men who can be utilized for fighting at any given time might be enormously increased if the trench-digging could be done by mere laborers instead of trained soldiers.

Thus the immense importance of China, as a source of military labor, becomes evident. China, without fighting, can add millions of fighters to the allied armies. But that is not all. The Chinese make "superb soldiers", Mr. Harding says, when properly trained. Thus, if it is conceivable that the man-power of the European allies, with America added, should not suffice to down the Germans, there is an untapped and bottomless reservoir in Asia to draw on.

China could furnish a substitute for every man on the western front, and leave no noticeable gap in her population. And China will do it if it becomes necessary.

THE LIMIT IN FEMINISM

A New York man named Murray Cohen has married a New York girl named Hella F. Bernays. Anybody who jumps to the conclusion that they are now Mr. and Mrs. Murray Cohen will be mistaken. Their names are Mr. and Mrs. Murray C. Bernays.

Possibly this form isn't quite accurate, either. Under the circumstances, very likely we ought to write Mrs. and Mr. Murray C. Bernays, although the legal papers by which the nomenclature of the pair was established give the precedence to the bridegroom.

Anyhow, the point is plain enough. Here is a living example of the ultimate in feminism. Old-fashioned Americans were shocked, a few years ago, when certain modern young women in New York insisted on keeping their own names, after marriage, including the dubious title "Miss". But when the woman not only keeps her own name, but makes the man adopt it, too, woman has surely triumphed.

Maybe this practice will become common, in time. Maybe it will be the regular thing, in every city and hamlet in America, for a man to "marry into" a woman's family, and submerge his own identity.

It's a fearsome prospect for the men. And yet (women can't be blamed. If all the talk we have heard in late years regarding "absolute democracy" and "equality of the sexes" is taken literally, why shouldn't it be as proper for a man to take a woman's name as for the woman to take the man's? Heretofore man has had it all his own way in naming the family. What is more natural than that, as the pendulum swings, woman should demand this prerogative?

We hope, however, that the process will not go so far as it has in ultra-progressive Thibet, where the "matriarchal" system prevails in all its glory. There, a woman not only does the proposing and names and rules the family, but usually has several contemporaneous husbands.

SCRAPBOOKS FOR SOLDIERS

Several months ago the Chicago public library undertook a form of relief work that British civilians have been indulging in ever since Rudyard Kipling first suggested it. That is, providing scrap books for convalescent soldiers.

The Chicago library is providing books. The Daily News of that city has offered to pay for 10,000 of these books. The public is invited to come and get them and then to get busy with all the individual ingenuity and enthusiasm possible, filling them. Immediately after the first announcement 700 books were taken out. Many of these are coming back finished already.

The idea is to make a scrap book of pictures, stories, verses, jokes, everything, of course, to be cheerful or entertaining. These scrap books are sent to the men in the hospitals who want something less weighty even than a novelette or magazine to while away some of the tedious hours of convalescence.

It is said that many thousand such books have been made by the English and forwarded to the hospitals. Many of the books show genuine artistic skill and careful thought. There are lots of grown-ups who still love to cut and paste. It's an attractive kind of work to fill an occasional evening. The work presents an opportunity for a good deal of originality, too.

Other industries may co-operate loyally with the government. But the coal men and bakers, just to show their democratic independence, go right on co-operating with the Kaiser.

Liquor dealers predict that whiskey will go to 50 cents a glass. But that's one war tax you don't really have to pay unless you want to.

THAT BACKACHE SPELLS DANGER!

Action Today May Save Maysville People Future Misery.

A bad back isn't a bad thing if it serves as warning of hidden kidney disorders. Kidney diseases are frightfully common today. We over-do so much. We don't give the kidneys a chance to rest up, and while a bad back, some bladder disorder, an occasional dizzy spell or a persistent headache may be the only outward sign, the kidney trouble that is behind it all may be overlooked or neglected. Put your signs to use. Take them as warnings. Fight off kidney weakness. It takes only a slight kidney disorder to start a case of fatal Bright's disease, from which 100,000 people die in the United States every year. Prompt treatment at first—that's all that's necessary to keep kidney weakness from turning into gravel, dropsy, gout, heart trouble or Bright's. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the oldest, the most widely used, the best-recommended Kidney Pills. Forty thousand Americans recommend them publicly. Here's one Maysville case:

Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I am subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since." (Statement given February 13, 1914.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE
On November 15, 1913, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today, as ever. I have not needed a kidney medicine since I took them."

Mrs. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Burns has twice publicly recommended—the remedy backed by home testimony. Considerable interest attaches to a three-day conference to be opened in New York today under the auspices of the League of Small and Subject Nationalities. The organization is nationalities, whose chief aim is to establish a permanent congress of small and subject nationalities, to assert their right to separate representation at international conferences, and to emphasize the importance of granting their rights as an indispensable condition of world peace in the future.

LONGING FOR A CHILD

Young Wife Almost in Despair. Now Has Beautiful Baby Girl.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought joy to many childless women by restoring them to normal health. Here is a notable case.

Omaha, Neb.—"I suffered from female troubles when I was seventeen years old. At eighteen I was married and my trouble was no better so I consulted a physician who said that there was not much I could do and I could not have children. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has proved worth its weight in gold to me for I am not only well but have a baby girl, so when I hear of any woman suffering as I was I tell her of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. W. HUGHES, 19 Majestic Apts., Omaha, Neb.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

HOW FIRST BONDS MAY BE CONVERTED

Washington, October 26—How the three and one-half per cent. bonds of the first Liberty Loan may be converted for other bonds which will pay four per cent, as do those of the second Liberty Loan, is fully described in a circular issued by the Treasury department.

Holders of the bonds of the first loan may exchange them for bonds paying the higher rate by applying to the Federal Reserve banks or to the Treasury department. Formal applications may be made after November 8 but not after May 15.

THE DAILY REMINDER

In The Day's News

When the League of Small and Subject Nationalities meets in conference in New York today, the presiding officer will be Frederic C. Howe, the president of the league and a lawyer and publicist of wide reputation. A native of Meadville, Pa., Mr. Howe received his education at Allegheny College, Johns Hopkins University, and at Halle, Germany. After graduating from the New York Law School he was admitted to the bar in 1894 and for fifteen years practiced his profession in Cleveland. During this period, he devoted himself to the study of municipal problems, particularly taxation, and was a lecturer on these subjects at the University of Wisconsin and Western Reserve University. In 1909 he removed to New York City and since 1914 he has been immigration commissioner of the Port of New York.

KAISER OWNS BOND—IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT'S $50 APPLIED TO LIBERTY BOND

Philadelphia, October 26—The Imperial German government is the owner of a Liberty bond. A local attorney has been handling funds of German estates in and about Philadelphia and in settling one account recently he had a balance of $60, which belonged to the Imperial German government. Yesterday he applied $50 of that amount to a Liberty bond to help the United States win the war.

DREW SEMINARY'S GOLDEN JUBILEE

New York, October 29—Untouched by age, save as time has added vigor and strength, Drew Theological Seminary, at Madison, N. J., can now contemplate "the splendid harvest of fifty years." A half century of active work in fitting young men for the Methodist ministry has been rounded out by the institution, and today there began a three-day celebration in honor of the semi-centennial. Exercises commemorative of the event are to be held at Madison and also in this city. In addition to the literary exercises, the program will include an historical pageant and a conference on the subject of theological education, participated in by representatives of many institutions.

Drew Theological Seminary owes its name to the munificence of Daniel Drew, one of the most daring and one of the most eccentric speculators who Mr. Harriman, Daniel Drew's most notable operations in "the Street" were in railroad securities. Mr. Drew was probably the only man signally defeated by Commodore Vanderbilt in speculation, but to do it he had to escape by ferry to Jersey City with a carpet bag which contained seven millions of Vanderbilt's good money.

Drew was treasurer of the Erie railway company in 1866 and personally loaned the company $500,000, taking unused stock, and bonds convertible into stock, to the amount of $6,000,000 as security. The stock he afterward sold to Vanderbilt, who was ambitious to secure the control of the road, and when that magnate thought he had put it upon the market. The courts enjoined Drew from selling the excess of stock over his loan, but this proved no barrier and in the face of the injunction he put his stock upon the market and the corner was broken and Vanderbilt nearly ruined.

Drew was obliged to flee to New Jersey carrying with him the seven millions of Vanderbilt's money, paid for "watered stock." Vanderbilt afterward protected Drew from the consequences of his contempt of court, and Drew returned to New York. But the property of the Erie railway company fell to the lot of Fisk and Gould, whom he had educated in finance, and Drew for a time retired from Wall Street. After a few months he returned to find Erie stock inflated from $34,000,000 to $57,000,000, and he had no chance against the pupils he had introduced to the financial world. His operations became more and more disastrous, his millions rapidly disappeared, and he was finally forced into bankruptcy in 1876. Three years later he died in this city.

Throughout his life Mr. Drew was a strong Methodist. In various of his operations in Wall Street he is said to have prayed to the Lord to keep matters going as he started them; but when the market steadily went against him he stopped his prayers and devoted himself to practical efforts to prevent disaster.

When at the high tide of his prosperity he built Drew Theological Seminary at a cost of $275,000, and endowed it with a similar amount which he afterward increased to over half a million dollars.

He founded the Drew seminary for young ladies, at Carmel, N. Y., at a cost of $250,000. He also increased the endowment fund of Wesleyan University $100,000 and of the Concord biblical institute to a considerable amount.

Mr. Drew's home in this city was at the home of Union Square and 17th Street. Methodist ministers from any part of the world were always sure of a welcome there, where they might

CITY MUST NOT SUFFER FROM COAL FAMINE, SAYS WIN-CHESTER MAYOR

Winchester, Ky., October 27 — "If we are confronted by cold weather, as the forecast indicates, before the coal situation in this city is relieved, and if there is any amount of suffering among our people as a result of the coal shortage here, I will seize every car of coal that passes through Winchester, if necessary, from which we will supply ourselves to relieve the suffering," was the declaration today of Mayor D. T. Matlack, when he was besieged with inquiries relatives to the coal situation which has become acute in this city. Today the city awoke without a bushel of coal in the different yards.

TOBACCO GROWERS SEE CROP OF 1917 AS A WARDHIDE

Hopkinsville, Ky., October 28 — In round figures Kentucky's tobacco crop, which is the largest grown by any state, this year is estimated at something like 450,000,000 pounds, and the farmers are expected to receive something like $100,000,000 for it. If this is realized, it means prices fully three times as high as they were a few years ago. Last year prices were twice what they ordinarily are, and the crop brought $60,000,000 to $65-000,000.

GORIZIA RETAKEN

By Tentons—Italians Quit Without Fighting—Berlin Claims Whole
Italian Front Is Shaken
By Blows.

Amsterdam, Oct. 28—The occupation of Gorizia this morning by Austro-German forces is announced in an official dispatch from Vienna. The Italians are said to have retired across the Isonzo.

Gorizia was captured by the Italians on August 9, 1916, at the time of the synchronous offensive of the Allies on the French, Galician and Italian fronts. The Italians took about 20-000 prisoners in the city. The capture of Gorizia was one of the most important successes of Italy's campaign against Austria. It is a town of 31,000 inhabitants on the Isonzo half way between the present Austro-German front of attack between Tolmino and the sea. It is strongly situated among the hills of great defensive value, in which there was heavy fighting before the Italians reached the city itself. Gorizia is 22 miles northeast of Trieste, Austria's big seaport at the head of the Adriatic, the capture of which is one of the principal Italian aspirations in the war.

The battle on the Isonzo evoked shouts of triumph, in the German and Austrian press, particularly the latter. According to a dispatch from Vienna, the Fremdenblatt goes on far as to declare that Italy will go the same way as Roumania, Serbia and Russia, paying "a terrible price for the guilt of her unscrupulous, treacherous and rapacious statesmen."

The Neuwienener Tageblatt talks of the "sudden destruction of the Entente's last hope on the European battlefields."

Army Surrenders Without Fighting
Rome, October 28—(British Admirality per Wireless Press)—Units of the Italian second army surrendered or retreated without fighting permitting the Austro-German forces to break the Italian left wing on the Julian front and invade Italy, says today's official report. The Italians now are retreating in accordance with the plan prepared.

"The failure to resist on the part of some units forming our second army, which in cowardice retired without fighting or surrendering to the enemy, allowed the Austro-German forces to break out left wing on the Julian front. The valiant efforts of other troops did not enable them to prevent the enemy from advancing into the plan prepared. All stores and depots in the evacuated places were destroyed.

"The record of many memorable battles fought with success by our brave soldiers during two and one-half years of war is sufficient to assure the commander-in-chief of the army to which the honor and safety of the country are entrusted will know how to fulfill its duty."

Capture of 100,000 Is Claimed Berlin, Via London, October 28—
"The capture of 100,000 Italians and more than 700 guns is reported in the official communication from general headquarters tonight, which declares that the Italian second and third armies are in retreat.

In the Mason County Court Saturday R. M. Lindsay was appointed

To the Organized Women of Kentucky:

Whereas: The United States Food Administration has determined that it is necessary to inaugurate a con-

the nation in a patriotic effort to conserve our foods and insure a suffi-front.

And Whereas: It has designated

COLBURN GETS STIFF FINE

Robert Colburn, of near Orangeburg, was tried in Squire Fred W.
Bauer's court Saturday afternoon on a charge of selling or offering for sale flesh of an animal which died other than by slaughter. After hearing all the evidence a jury decided that Colburn was guilty and fixed his fine at $50 and costs—$86 in all. Colburn was tried several weeks ago in the same court and the case resulted in a hung jury. It is probable that the case will be appealed.

Adjustments Restore Health Quickly and Permanently

Nature is the Chiropractor's only sure from the nerves and make the way free for Nature to do her part in sending mental impulses through them to make and keep the body well.
